Hey sir, we have a Basic Training class (mandatory for Ohio Regulars) from Jan 3rd-9th. If you have any guys who don't have formal training, that you want to send, feel free to give them my info. It's a full Basic Training shoved into a week. It will be tough. Grueling even.

I want my guys on the same page before innauguration. If you'd like to involve any of your men, the offer is on the table. There is a packing list I will distribute before end of week. Thank you sir! You're a rock amongst sand

A large blue speech bubble with a white question. The bubble has a pointed tail at the top left, pointing towards the 'From: Whipp' text. The text inside the bubble is white and centered.

What is it exactly and where is it

It's a military style basic, here in Ohio, with a Marine Drill Sergeant running it. An hour north of Columbus Ohio

We can have mace, tasers, or night sticks.
QRF staged, armed, with our weapons, outside the city
